

Senate Bill (SB) 205 Stormwater Discharge Compliance

Effective January 1, 2020, under Senate Bill (SB) 205, there will be additional requirements for approval of business license applications or renewals involving an industrial business that is regulated by the State General Permit for Stormwater Discharges Associated with Industrial Activities Excluding Construction Activities or otherwise known as the Industrial General Permit (IGP). The contents of SB 205 can be viewed at https://leginfo.legislature.ca.gov/faces/billTextClient.xhtml?bill\_id=201920200SB205.

Applicants that fall under a certain category will need to provide under penalty of perjury their primary State Industrial Classification (SIC) Code. If the SIC Code is regulated by the IGP then one of the following must also be provided: Waste Discharge Identification Number (WDID), WDID Application Number, No Exposure Certification Identification Number (NEC), or Notice of Nonapplicability Identification Number (NONA). The City is also required to confirm that information submitted to demonstrate enrollment or application actually applies to that business and its facility/facilities.
